

3 Ways Connected Apparel Refreshes Your Spring Weekend Look

3 Ways Connected Apparel Refreshes Your Spring Weekend Look

What's your spring weekend vibe? Do you like to keep things casual? Do you like to head out to the local farmers market? Are you one for brunch with friends? No matter your weekend vibe this spring, Connected Apparel can help you put together a look that simply nails it. It's the kind of look that isn't out of place relaxing on the patio at home, exploring the morning market, or heading to brunch with the girls. Connected Apparel has all kinds of spring-inspired plus, regular, and petite dresses for work, weekend, and everything you have in mind this spring.

Taking in the Farmers Market

As the weather gets nicer, farmers markets around the country open back up for their communities. You may have been eagerly anticipating farmers market season. It's where you can find everything from fresh produce to artisan crafts. With Connected Apparel, you can be ready for farmers and outdoor markets of all kinds. It all starts with Connected Apparel's breezy lineup of dresses. Explore the market in a floral maxi dress. The Jage Green Collared Maxi Dress, for instance, is a blend of style and functionality. The bright jade green is perfect for spring and pockets deliver serious versatility—and a dress with versatility can easily win the weekend.

Casual Brunch with the Girls

From the outdoor market to a late morning brunch, you can be ready for just about anything with Connected Apparel. You can go from strolling the market stalls to enjoying brunch with the girls—without missing a beat. Connected Apparel’s plus, regular, and petite work dresses can easily pull double-duty between weekdays at the office and weekends at brunch. The Selena Black Floral Sleeveless Knot Dress is one dress that's perfect for any brunch, from casual brunch with the girls to Sunday brunch with the family. The Selena also comes in other spring-inspired florals, like berry and teal. Of course, no matter your print of choice, you’ll look good sipping mimosas, chatting, and simply enjoying one another's company.

A Spring Weekend Bash

From spring weddings to spring birthday parties, you may have a few weekends that don’t have something going on. With Connected Apparel, you can be ready for every social engagement on your calendar. With their collection of faux wrap dresses, be ready for the next spring wedding with stunning yet subtle florals like the Lisa 2.0 Red Floral Faux Wrap Dress. Or find the perfect ensemble for your next weekend backyard get-together. The light and airy spring colors of Lisa 2.0 might just be what you’re looking for. With colors like new coral, jade, dark purple, and cobalt, you’ll be ready for every occasion this spring.

Nail your spring weekend look at <https://connectedapparel.com/>

Original Source: <https://bit.ly/3UqYqUh>

