3 Ways ezCater Helps You Celebrate Your Administrative Assistants

From scheduling appointments, organizing files, and sourcing office supplies, no one keeps your office running smoothly like the administrative assistant team. With Administrative Assistant Day on the horizon, you may wonder how to show appreciation to the resourceful people who keep your workplace afloat. Why not go the extra mile this April 24 with a catered team celebration?

The tricky thing about celebrating your administrative assistants? They are often in charge of planning workplace events and activities! Fortunately, with their wide variety of restaurant partners, easy-to-navigate platform, and responsive customer service, ezCater makes corporate catering a breeze—so you can easily show appreciation for your team.

Here are three ways ezCater can help you celebrate administrative assistants on April 24 and year-round!

Start the Day with Smiles

Your workplace's administrative assistants have probably rescued everyone from their midmorning energy slumps with a coffee run once or twice (okay—three times). Administrative Assistant Appreciation Day is the perfect opportunity to return this favor! Show your savvy teammates appreciation with a catered coffee and breakfast bar for the office to enjoy.

With over 100,000 partners nationwide, you may be able to cater this breakfast from one of your workplace's favorite coffee spots with ezCater. Offices in Kentucky may celebrate with coffee and breakfast from Smiths Catering for some of the best breakfast catering Lexington KY has to offer!

Do a Little Digging

From making sure Kayla's birthday cake was vegan and Siobhan's five-year anniversary cupcakes were gluten-free, administrative assistants understand the importance of details! Do some research before April 24 to treat them to a celebration with a personal touch. Luckily, ezCater makes refining your catering search simple, so you can find restaurants that meet your criteria without a headache.

Find out if the administrative assistants have sweet teeth, favorite foods, or any food aversions so you can surprise them with a catered celebration planned with their taste in mind. Whether you are planning a celebratory lunch on the West Coast or are catering Nashville workplaces, a simple, refined search on ezCater will help you find the perfect caterer for your event.

Give the Gift That Keeps Giving

If your administrative assistants are responsible for planning daily lunch catering and other workplace meal programs, streamline their workflow with ezCater's customizable recurring meal program, Relish. Administrative assistants juggle a lot, so your team will appreciate having reliably great meals and being able to check one more item off their busy to-do lists!

The ezCater Relish program can:

- Provide a variety of restaurants for your team to choose from.
- Boost morale with tasty food.
- Meet your company's needs with a scalable program that fits your size and budget.
- Keep things simple!

When someone in your office has a general question, needs help scheduling an appointment, or even just runs out of sticky notes, they likely call on the administrative assistant team. Show this versatile, detail-oriented team how much everyone appreciates them this April 24—and beyond—with a little help from one of ezCater's many trusted restaurant partners.
