With their platform, you can access over 100,000 restaurants in cities and towns across the U.S. and customize your orders to suit your needs. That means you can make health-conscious decisions, choosing nutritious and delicious foods to satisfy hunger and tastebuds.

Try the following options from ezCater to ensure your catered event goes off without a hitch, whether it's a corporate lunch, team building event, or a special occasion.

Order for Meetings and Event Catering

Head over to ezCater's website to place orders for meetings and event catering. This one-time option makes it easy to find restaurants in your area that your team will love. It's the perfect way to feed groups of any size in any workplace nationwide. Simply select your state and city and narrow your search based on dietary preferences and cuisine.

For example, you can find the best catering Wilmington NC offers through ezCater. Select North Carolina, then Wilmington, and a list of Wilmington restaurants will appear. You can narrow your search by cuisine options like Japanese, Middle Eastern, and Mexican. Even "healthy" is an option so that you can select nutritious meals for the team. The same is true for any city listed on ezCater!

Sign Up for Recurring Meal Plans

ezCater has a fantastic option for recurring meals, and you can let your team choose healthy, nutritious options that also taste delicious. Relish by ezCater is the easy way to simplify your subsidized team meals. ezCater handles the logistics, from curating the restaurants to ordering support and delivery.

Relish is a customizable program that lets your team order exactly what they want from various restaurants. Even sandwich catering is easy with the recurring meal plans, so your team receives food that aligns with their dietary preferences. Meals come individually packaged and labeled, delivered right to your workspace.

See If You Qualify for Concierge Ordering

For qualifying customers, ezCater offers premium concierge ordering options. Concierge ordering puts time back on your calendar and healthy food in your office or event location. You provide your concierge with details about what you want for your team, including the “healthy” preference, and they’ll do the work for you.

You will get a draft of your order based on your specifications. After that, simply review it and place the order. That’s it! You chose the healthy meal but didn’t have to look through endless restaurants to find the right fit.

ezCater allows you to access hundreds of restaurants in your area, making it easy to customize your orders to suit your business. With dietary preferences and budgets to follow, ezCater provides a means to simplify catering for your team.
