

4 Outstanding Lever-Action Rifles You Can Find at Cheaper Than Dirt!

4 Outstanding Lever-Action Rifles You Can Find at Cheaper Than Dirt!

In a world of firearms designed, manufactured, and modified to suit virtually any shooter's preferences, the lever-action rifle is arguably still the most distinctive gun out there. From reliable performance to the timeless aesthetic, there's just something about a lever action that sets it apart.

Not all lever-action rifles are created equal, but no matter what you're looking for in a new lever-action model, you can find it when you shop the impressive selection at Cheaper Than Dirt! Whether you need targets, a bench rest, a 30-30 Winchester rifle, or any other shooting gear, Cheaper Than Dirt has you covered.

When it comes to lever-action rifles, Cheaper Than Dirt offers a variety of models to choose from so you can get the performance and character you're after. Here's a list of four outstanding lever-action rifles you can find when you shop Cheaper Than Dirt.

Marlin Model 1894 Classic

Classic looks, solid grip, and reliable performance are at hand in the Marlin Model 1894 Classic. Chambered in .357 Magnum or .38 Special, this firearm features a cold hammer-forged barrel with meticulous rifling for next-level accuracy.

The American black walnut stock and forend look timeless, making this a rifle that you'll be proud to keep with you while you're hunting or out on the ranch.

Rossi R92 Carbine

Whether you're putting in some target practice or chasing game through the brush, the Rossi R92 will give you the capability you need at a reasonable price and in an appealing package. The R92 is a tribute to the legacy of the classic American lever action, and it certainly holds up its end of the bargain.

With a tube magazine holding eight rounds, this is the camp rifle you've been looking for. You'll enjoy quick follow-up shots courtesy of the smooth-cycling action to match the vintage aesthetic appeal. If you want to relive the frontier days while firing off bulk ammo, this is the rifle for you.

Henry Big Boy Brass Side Gate Carbine

There's a wide range of high-quality lever-action rifles out there, but it's tough to compare any of them to a genuine Henry. In particular, this carbine's shorter 16.5-inch barrel makes it easier to carry without compromising the traditional appearance.

Available in .45 Colt, the Henry Big Boy Brass Side Gate Carbine features an octagonal barrel of blued steel and a receiver finished in brass, which creates an intriguing visual contrast. There are no two ways about it—this Henry carbine is a bona fide head-turner.

Cimarron 1873 Trapper Rifle

The 1873 Winchester will always be known as “the gun that won the west,” and the Cimarron 1873 Trapper Rifle is a faithful reproduction. The familiar look of the blued receiver and walnut stock will have you feeling like you've known this rifle all your life.

When you buy your Cimarron 1873 Trapper Rifle at Cheaper Than Dirt, you can easily add on all the ammo, cleaning supplies, and accessories you need to enjoy your new lever-action rifle to the fullest without breaking the bank.

Find your new favorite lever-action from Cheaper Than Dirt! At <https://www.cheaperthandirt.com/>

Original Source: <https://bit.ly/3TsY8C3>

