Connected Apparel Is Your Spring Wedding Guest Dress Destination

Spring is on the horizon, which means you probably have a few weddings on the calendar. You've RSVP'd 'yes,' but you still don't know what to wear. If you're looking for stylish, comfortable, versatile, and affordable dresses and jumpsuits, Connected Apparel has you covered.

From petite dresses special occasion ready to plus size wrap dresses, this brand is known for its incredible selection. Whether you're a part of the bridal party, the mother of the bride or groom, or just honored to see your friends tie the knot, here are a few options from Connected Apparel.

Mother of the Bride or Groom Dresses

There's nothing more beautiful than seeing your son or daughter get married. Connected Apparel offers a selection of dresses as beautiful as the moment. Once you've consulted the bride about colors, styles, and formality, explore Connected Apparel's Wedding Shop for a wide range of options. Springtime calls for comfort and color, so consider picking up a wrap dress plus size to petite in a bright color like turquoise, yellow, green, or even pink if you're feeling bold.

Bridesmaids on a Budget

If seeing your child get married is among life's most beautiful moments, standing beside your best friend at the altar is a close second. If you're part of a bridal party (or two) this spring, Connected Apparel has you covered with a wide selection of dresses perfect for bridesmaids on a budget.

As you probably know, the bride has the final say over color and styles for bridesmaids, but thankfully, Connected Apparel's selection is so extensive you can likely find the perfect dress to fit the bride's specifications. Plus, all of Connected Apparel's dresses are made with high-quality materials and have an amazing fit, so you can save money on a beautiful petite to plus size sheath dress without sacrificing quality.

Make a Statement as a Guest

Chances are, you'll attend most weddings as a guest and won't be in the wedding party. That means you get the chance to really shine and make a statement (without outdoing the bride, of course). Connected Apparel is your destination for all things statement-worthy.

Head to the Special Occasion section of Connected Apparel's website, and you'll be greeted with a wide selection of sparkly, daring, and bold options perfect for a spring wedding. Whether you choose a sequin lace dress or a purple faux wrap dress, there's something for everyone here.

Connected Apparel is here for you, no matter the occasion. Along with being the top destination for wedding guest dresses, Connected Apparel is also your source for date night dresses, office apparel, and casual dresses.
