Did You Know Berxi's Malpractice Insurance Can Come with These Features?

What do you look for in malpractice insurance? As a professional or small business owner, you may search for key features to get that fine-tuned coverage you need. You want to make sure you're protected in a variety of ways, including against claims of negligence along with potential monetary losses. Berxi knows every professional wants coverage that fits their career. They're an insurance provider that offers professional insurance, including policies for nurse practitioners, mental health counselors, and dentists, among many others. Malpractice insurance nurse practitioner policies—along with many other Berxi policies—include a number of features like HIPAA defense and more. Here are a few highlights!

Good Samaritan Coverage

If you're in the healthcare field and you encounter someone in distress, your instinct may be to help that person. You may have also seen news stories about Good Samaritans helping people—such as those choking or having a medical episode—only for those Good Samaritans to have a claim filed against them. These claims may not be filed in malice (they often aren't), but they can still be a disruption for the Good Samaritan. Thankfully, Good Samaritan coverage is part of Berxi's overall malpractice coverage. Good Samaritan coverage can mean that your malpractice policy will cover you should you provide first aid or emergency care to someone who is not explicitly your patient.

Reputation Coverage for Certain Professionals

What happens if your professional reputation comes under fire? There are all kinds of situations in which your reputation may be damaged due to a claim filed against you or an upset client or patient speaking out against you publicly. In this instance, you can turn to your malpractice insurance for RN that includes dedicated reputation coverage. As part of this coverage, Berxi may connect you with a public relations specialist or crisis management consultant to help you strategize and determine your next steps as a professional. This coverage is offered for many healthcare professions, but not all, so be sure to check if it applies to you.

HIPAA Violation Defense

If you work in the healthcare field, you may be very familiar with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act—HIPAA. It goes without saying, it's a big deal. Whether you're a dentist, nurse, or physical therapist, it can apply to you. There are instances where someone may file a claim against you alleging you broke HIPAA rules, such as the rules related to the sharing of private health information. With nursing or dentists malpractice insurance through an insurer like Berxi, you can get counsel to help you with the claim, along with reimbursement for associated HIPAA costs including HIPAA-related fines.

And More!

These are just three features you can find in Berxi's malpractice insurance policies. There are many more—and many options you can choose to best fit your exact needs. Some policies can have different features, as well. The bottom line is if you're a professional, you can rest easier with coverage built to protect your career.
