Experience the Dream of da Vinci in Tuscany

Imagine what the great Leonardo da Vinci would think seeing a flying machine over the vineyards of Tuscany. The Renaissance thinker, artist, and inventor spent part of his life in Florence and Tuscany in the 1400s. He may be known for the Mona Lisa, but he's also known for the aerial screw—a wild, early version of the helicopter.

While we've come a long way from da Vinci's inventive sketches, his dreams have transformed into your reality. From Cuvée's luxury villa vacation rentals in Tuscany, you can experience the dream of da Vinci and see the vineyards, olive groves, and ancient hilltop towns from the sky.
