Trusted Breeders

Catzilla Vancouver, Golden British Shorthair Kennel has been known as one of Vancouver's most professional cat breeders. They specialize in providing golden British Shorthair kittens for sale Coquitlam to their customers. These beauties are not just pets but are truly natural masterpieces with pure bloodlines and unmatched beauty. They always follow the highest breeding standards and ensure that every kitten represents the breed perfectly.

Breeding Process

The team of Catzilla Vancouver, Golden British Shorthair Kennel understands that breeding the best Golden British Shorthair cats requires the right expertise and care. So, they make sure to always have a professional approach and take care of every aspect of the breeding process. They always pick the right parent cats and understand the genetics and behaviour efficiently. They will make sure that healthy and beautiful kittens are born. They do not mate early and let the cats fully grow before beginning the breeding process. This helps ensure that both the parent cats and the kittens are healthy after the process is finished.

Social Adaptation

Catzilla Vancouver, Golden British Shorthair Kennel does not only focus on offering purebred kittens. Instead, they also take care of social adaptation. They ensure every kitten is ready to move to its new home. These socially adapted kittens are trained in how to use the litter box and scratching posts. Along with this, they are also prepared to live a life with utmost love and affection. They provide a loving environment so that the kittens grow to be caring pets for the families they move to.

Proper Care

The team at Catzilla Vancouver, Golden British Shorthair Kennel always takes care of the health and well-being of the cats. They schedule regular veterinary checkups, vaccinations, and grooming for the kittens. This helps them provide the healthiest cats to cat lovers.
