

How Cuvée Personalizes Every Getaway Across the Globe

How Cuvée Personalizes Every Getaway Across the Globe

Some experiences stay with you for the rest of your life. These are the kinds of experiences that leave you feeling energized and wanting more. If you're searching for the experience experts, look no further than Cuvée. They've curated a portfolio of signature properties all over the world that you can enjoy year round. They own and maintain luxury villa vacation rentals in the Bahamas, the Rocky Mountains of Colorado, Los Cabos, Italy, and many other premier destinations.

While Cuvée offers an impressive selection of properties, these homes represent just one small part of a much larger picture. With each destination comes all sorts of experiences. These aren't limited to the typical experiences you might expect on a getaway either. They're bespoke experiences made for you. Here's how Cuvée makes it happen.

It Begins with Cuvée's Curated Collection of Homes, Villas, and Chalets

Cuvée's curated collection of luxury vacation house rentals is your home base for enjoying all the possibilities of your destination, no matter what time of year you've decided to get away. Think of these rare homes, villas, chalets, and penthouses as your starting point for any experience you can dream up.

From Aspen, Colorado, to Big Island, Hawaii; Tuscany, Italy; or Los Cabos in Baja California, you can discover an epic range of properties to embark on your next adventure. This may be the year you decide to summer in Tuscany or you want to take the family to Hawaii for an unforgettable family reunion over the holidays. Cuvée has the home to keep everyone in your party comfortable and recharging in luxury.

Experience Curators at Every Destination

The Cuvée experience may begin with their collection of luxury home rentals, but your story continues with Cuvée's devoted team of Experience Curators. This group of "experience artisans" live and breathe each Cuvée destination. They're immersed in the dynamics of each locale. That means they're well-versed in everything from the most spectacular highlights to the hidden gems and must-see sights of the season you're visiting.

When you have your heart set on swimming with sea turtles in Los Cabos, your Cuvée Experience Curators can help make it happen. If you want to go horseback riding on a Hawaiian beach, you can! Cuvée's Experience Curators get to know you and exactly what you want to help you step into an individualized and unscripted experience.

An Impeccable Level of Service

The devoted Cuvée team extends beyond their worldly Experience Curators. Your Cuvée experience can also include a local Cuvée concierge team and your own Cuvée chef. Your local concierge team can help further tailor your experience to your preferences. They can help make various arrangements and serve as information specialists.

When you arrive at your destination—whether it's Los Cabos in Baja California or Aspen, Colorado—you can also be welcomed by a chef-prepared reception. It's a flavorful way to kick off your getaway. Better yet, you can deepen your culinary horizons with more chef-led experiences throughout your stay. If you want a Cuvée chef for the duration of your getaway, that can be arranged. If you'd like to go deep-sea fishing and have your chef transform your catch into tonight's dining experience, that can be arranged, too. Just like every aspect of your Cuvée getaway, the possibilities are practically endless!
