Collect a Selection of Cream Tops

Democracy Clothing is always updating their selection of tops with pretty silhouettes that flatter your shape and align with seasonal trends, all without sacrificing the timeless look. Their cream styles are perfect for warm and cool days in spring, allowing you to pair them with shorts, jeans, and any other bottoms. The versatile shade of cream looks just as good with an olive green as it does with a denim blue.

Choose a Variety of Green Bottoms

The green bottoms from Democracy Clothing are an excellent way to add a bit of color to your closet without stretching you too far out of your comfort zone if you’re used to wearing blue jeans or maybe the occasional cargos. While those looks are classic and stylish, the muted springtime shade of a light olive or a forest green is perfect for high-rise shorts and utility pants. You can pair them with your cream-colored tops for everyday outfits that will make people wonder where you found such fashionable styles. Plus, Democracy Clothing offers green bottoms featuring their “Ab”solution® fit technology, complete with strategically placed back pockets and tummy-smoothing panels for a figure-flattering fit.

Mix and Match Your Pieces

You don't always have to wear your cream tops with the green bottoms. You can wear pretty fashion tops with the boot jeans women love wearing during the spring season, or the laid-back girlfriend jean styles Democracy Clothing offers. Cream is versatile enough to work with blue denim, or you can even wear your green bottoms with a denim top. You can style a white tee under a denim jacket or get a denim button-up to wear with your green Democracy Clothing shorts and style them with some brown sandals or white sneakers for the perfect casual look.

Add some soft colors to your closet with Democracy Clothing's new cream and green styles. You'll love the way they complement each other and any piece in your wardrobe, including classic blue denim looks, like the Democracy Clothing girlfriend jean. You can work a variety of beautiful cream blouses into your weekly rotation and mix and match some green shorts or colored jeans into your weekends, and the occasional casual event during the week. No matter where this season takes you, Democracy Clothing can help you get there in a fit that flatters your shape.
