HOW TO COVER VARANASI TOURIST PLACES IN ONE DAY

Morning

Assi Ghat

- Start your day early by heading to Assi Ghat to witness the sunrise over the Ganges River.
- Take a boat ride along the ghats to experience the morning rituals and the lively atmosphere.

Dashashwamedh Ghat

- After the boat ride, visit Dashashwamedh Ghat, one of the oldest and most important ghats in Varanasi.
- Witness the Ganga Aarti ceremony that takes place every morning around sunrise.

Mid-Morning

Kashi Vishwanath Temple

Head to the Kashi Vishwanath Temple, one of the most sacred Hindu temples dedicated to Lord Shiva.

Manikarnika Ghat

Visit Manikarnika Ghat, one of the main cremation ghats in Varanasi. It provides insight into Hindu death rituals and the cycle of life and death

Lunch Break

Enjoy Local Cuisine

- Take a break for lunch and savor some authentic Banarasi cuisine at one of the local restaurants or eateries near the ghats.
- Don't miss trying the famous Banarasi chaat and lassi.

Afternoon

Sarnath

- In the afternoon, head to Sarnath, located about 13 kilometers from Varanasi.
- Explore the Dhamek Stupa, where Buddha is said to have given his first sermon after attaining enlightenment.
- Visit the Archaeological Museum to see ancient artifacts and sculptures related to Buddhism.

Explore Varanasi's Alleys

- Spend some time wandering through the narrow lanes and alleys of Varanasi's old city.
- Take in the vibrant street life, interact with locals, and explore the numerous temples, shops, and markets.

Evening

Ganga Aarti at Dashashwamedh Ghat:

- Return to Dashashwamedh Ghat in the evening to witness the mesmerizing Ganga Aarti ceremony.
- The evening aarti is a beautiful spectacle of lights, music, and rituals, and it's a must-see when in Varanasi.
