The Birth Chart A Brief Overview

The birth chart contains twelve houses, each depicting a different aspect of life. There are 12 zodiac signs and nine planets. Based on the placement of the planets in different houses and signs, we can decode what the birth chart says about a specific aspect of life. The general significations of all twelve houses are as follows:

- First house- Your personality
- Second house- Your wealth, speech, food and family
- Third house- Your siblings, travel, skills and talents
- Fourth house- Your house, vehicles and happiness in life
- Fifth house- Your intelligence, creativity, children and entertainment
- Sixth house- Your debts, competitors, diseases, maternal side
- Seventh house- Your spouse, marriage, partnership and the outer world
- Eighth house- Your miseries, sudden events, inheritance, unearned wealth
- Ninth house- Your luck, religion, long travels, father, teachers, mentors
- Tenth house- Your career, prestige, status, power
- Eleventh house- Your social circle, desires, gains
- Twelfth house- Your losses, expenses, hidden enemies and Moksha

Different astrological signs can influence relationships. Here's what each sign means:

- Sun: Strong personality and dynamic interactions in relationships.
- Moon: Emotional sensitivity and partnerships that can change.
- Mercury: Good communication skills, but relationships can be fickle.
- Venus: Harmony and love in partnerships.
- Mars: Passionate relationships, but sometimes they can be contentious.
- Jupiter: Beneficial and supportive partnerships.
- Saturn: Relationships that come with challenges and lessons.
- Rahu (North Node): Unconventional relationships and unexpected events.
- Ketu (South Node): Karmic ties and detachment in partnerships.
