

The radionuclide is an essential part of the acting part of RDC (Radionuclide Drug Conjugate), which can play a role in killing cancer cells and diagnostic imaging. Types of radionuclides are approved for application in RDC nowadays.