After 24 Hours

If you cancel after the 24-hour window, you will not get your money back in cash. Instead, you will receive a travel credit for the remaining balance after the cancellation fee is deducted. This credit can be used for future Spirit Airlines flights or services.

Special Circumstances

In some cases, Spirit Airlines may provide a refund outside the normal policy under specific circumstances, such as:

- Military Deployment: If you are in the military and receive orders for deployment, you may be eligible for a refund.
- Death or Serious Illness: In the event of the death or serious illness of a passenger or immediate family member, Spirit may consider refund requests. Documentation may be required.

Spirit Airlines Fees for Cancellation

If you cancel your Spirit Airlines flight after the 24-hour window, you will be subject to cancellation fees. These fees can vary depending on when you cancel your flight:

- 60 days or more before departure: $39
- 7 to 59 days before departure: $69

- Less than 7 days before departure: $99

It's important to note that these fees apply per passenger, so if you're traveling with a group, the total cost of cancellation can add up quickly. Additionally, these fees are non-refundable and will be deducted from the amount paid for your ticket.

Factors Influencing Cancellation Fees

- Timing: The closer you are to the departure date, the higher the cancellation fee.
- Booking Type: Different fare types and promotions may have specific cancellation policies and fees.
- Membership Status: Spirit's $9 Fare Club members might have different or reduced fees.

This credit can be applied to any Spirit Airlines flight or service.

- Validity: Travel credits are typically valid for 12 months from the date of issuance.
- Usage: Credits can be used for booking future flights or purchasing additional services (like baggage fees or seat selection).
- Non-Transferable: Credits are usually non-transferable and can only be used by the original ticket holder.
