

Study in Latvia

Latvia is a small country in Northern Europe with a population of just over two million people. It is bordered by Estonia to the north, Lithuania to the south, Belarus to the east, and the Baltic Sea to the west. Latvia is a member of the European Union and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

Latvia is a popular destination for international students, with over 10,000 international students studying in Latvia each year. Latvia offers a variety of study programs at both public and private universities, and the cost of living in Latvia is relatively affordable compared to other European countries.

Benefits of studying in Latvia

There are many benefits to study in Latvia, including:

- Affordable tuition fees: The tuition fees for public universities in Latvia are relatively affordable compared to other European countries.
- High-quality education: Latvian universities offer high-quality education that is recognized worldwide.
- Multicultural environment: Latvia is a multicultural country with a diverse student population.
- Safe and welcoming environment: Latvia is a safe and welcoming country with a friendly people.

- Beautiful scenery: Latvia is a beautiful country with a lot to offer visitors, including stunning beaches, lush forests, and historic towns.

Admission requirements for international students

The admission requirements for international students vary depending on the university and the program of study. However, most universities require international students to have a high school diploma or equivalent qualification, and to have a good command of the English language. Some universities may also require international students to take an entrance exam.

Cost of studying in Latvia

The cost of studying in Latvia varies depending on the university, the program of study, and the length of the program. However, in general, the cost of studying in Latvia is relatively affordable compared to other European countries.

The average tuition fee for undergraduate programs in Latvia is around 3,000-4,000 Euros per year. The average tuition fee for postgraduate programs in Latvia is around 4,000-5,000 Euros per year.

In addition to tuition fees, students will also need to budget for living expenses such as accommodation, food, transportation, and other miscellaneous expenses. The cost of living in Latvia varies depending on the city and the lifestyle of the student. However, students can expect to spend around 500-600 Euros per month on living expenses.

Student visas for international students

International students who plan to study in Latvia for more than 90 days will need to apply for a student visa. Student visas can be applied for at the Latvian embassy or consulate in the student's home country.

To apply for a student visa, students will need to submit the following documents:

- A valid passport
- A letter of acceptance from a Latvian university
- Proof of financial support
- Health insurance
- A passport-size photo

Scholarships for international students

There are a number of scholarships available to international students who plan to study in Latvia. These scholarships can help to reduce the cost of tuition fees and living expenses.

To find out more about scholarships for international students in Latvia, students can contact the Latvian embassy or consulate in their home country, or they can search online.

Working while studying in Latvia

International students who are studying full-time in Latvia are allowed to work part-time for up to 20 hours per week during the academic year and full-time during the summer holidays.

To work while study in Latvia, for Indian students will need to apply for a work permit. Work permits can be applied for at the Latvian Migration and Citizenship Board.

Conclusion

Latvia is a great country to study in. It offers high-quality education, affordable tuition fees, and a safe and welcoming environment. If you are considering studying abroad, Latvia should be at the top of your list.

If you are unsure or would like to get deeper insight, we encourage you to speak with our team of expert counsellors at Meridean Overseas Education Consultants (MOEC). If you are unable to travel to our offices, we offer online counselling services via our website. Our dedicated counsellors will provide you with the best guidance regarding your application

Email :- application02@meridean.org

Contact no :- 1800 1230 00011