The Luxurious Ways Cuvée Completes Your Escape to Vail, Colorado

Vail, Colorado is an alpine village tucked away in the Rocky Mountains. During the summer, the village is hidden amongst lush green pines. In the winter, Vail is a veritable wonderland of snow—with plenty of skiing to match. No matter what time of year you choose to visit Vail, Cuvée can complete your mountain escape. Their luxury vacation house rentals are situated in and around the Vail Valley, which puts you within steps of world-class skiing during the winter or unbeatable hiking during the summer—and so much more in between. Here are a few ways Cuvée can complete your luxurious Vail escape.

Walk to the Slopes or Around Town

Vail is a historic town hidden in a valley along Gore Creek. Thanks to its relatively small size, practically everything in Vail is within walking distance. You can easily walk to the slopes from Cuvée’s luxury home rentals. Some rentals even include the option to ski in and ski out, like the Arrabelle Chalet. You can hit the slopes whenever the mood strikes you. Just put on your gear and go. Not in the mood for a slalom down the hill? You can just as easily head into town and enjoy some shopping or fine dining—or just a casual stroll.

Warm Up by the Fire or in the Hot Tub

Whether it’s the middle of winter or the height of summer, there’s nothing quite like relaxing by the fire or soaking in a hot tub. With Cuvée, you can find luxury home rentals complete with fire pits and hot tubs that can take your getaway to the next level. These aren’t just any fire pit or hot tub. These are amenities with a view. After a day of skiing at the world-renowned Vail slopes, you can rest by the fire to warm up as you look out at the sparkling village and hillside below. Or you can unwind in the rooftop hot tub and let the jets melt the day away.

A Culinary Celebration

Picture this: You've gathered around the table with family and friends at your luxury home rental. Behind you, the snow falls ever-so-gently. Together, you make a toast to one another and an unforgettable experience. Finally, you enjoy your first bites of a Swiss-inspired raclette dinner. With Cuvée, you can make this dream a reality. And that's just the start of it. At Cuvée's luxury villa vacation rentals throughout Vail and in neighboring renowned ski destinations, you can experience all the culinary delights the region has to offer. From freshly caught fish from the pristine nearby rivers to some incredible cuts of lamb raised in the Rockies, local options are a staple of every menu. This includes menus prepared by Cuvée's own culinary team of four-star chefs. Every bite is a celebration of Vail and the experience you've embarked on with Cuvée.
