As one of their best-selling products, Golden Hour Recovery Cream is a reliable Ursa Major moisturizer that sinks right into the skin. It delivers nutrients and essential fatty acids to your complexion, leaving it feeling hydrated but not greasy. Golden Hour Recovery Cream is a fantastic moisturizer to layer over other Ursa Major favorites like the vitamin C brighten serum or Lunar Bloom Retinal Serum. It works well regardless of region, and you can use it as a day or night cream (or both!).

Alpine Rich Cream

Alpine Rich Cream will be your go-to if you need more moisture and a richer texture. This Ursa Major formula features tremella mushroom, skullcap flower, and moss stem cells to help dry, tight-feeling skin look healthy and moisturized. This moisturizer can help quench your skin even in dry climates. Wear it during the day for an extra dewy appearance, at night for a restorative experience, or day and night to help soften the look for fine lines for plump and healthy-looking skin.

Force Field SPF 30

Sun protection is crucial regardless of which moisturizer you use. Ursa Major's Force Field SPF 30 is a nourishing, mineral-based formula with forest-infused ingredients. It's lightweight and can glide smoothly over another moisturizer or can be worn on its own.

If you want to keep your skincare routine simple, use the vitamin C serum brightening formula to help illuminate the appearance of your complexion, then follow with the Force Field SPF 30 to help protect against the sun's UV rays.
