Jawaharlal Nehru Memorial, Jalandhar

The Jawaharlal Nehru Memorial in Jalandhar stands as a testament to the visionary leader's legacy. This memorial pays homage to Jawaharlal Nehru, India's first Prime Minister, showcasing his contributions to the nation. The site features exhibits, photographs, and artifacts that chronicle his life and political journey. Set in a tranquil environment, the memorial offers visitors an insightful and reflective experience, making it a significant stop along the Delhi to Srinagar Tour bus journey.

The Golden Temple, located in the heart of Amritsar, is a symbol of spiritual and architectural brilliance. Adorned in gold, the Harmandir Sahib, as it is known locally, attracts millions of visitors annually. The serene Sarovar (sacred pool) surrounding the temple adds to its divine ambiance. Visitors experience the profound Sikh hospitality through the Langar, a free community kitchen serving meals to all. The intricate marble and gold detailing of the temple, combined with the spiritual aura, make the Golden Temple a must-visit destination, offering a blend of religious significance and architectural marvel.
