Agra has many pretty gardens that offer peaceful breaks from the busy city. These gardens show how Mughal rulers loved nature. Many Agra Tour Packages include visits to these gardens.

Mehtab Bagh: Mehtab Bagh is a garden across the river from the Taj Mahal. It's famous for great views of the Taj, especially at sunset. Many Agra tours include it.

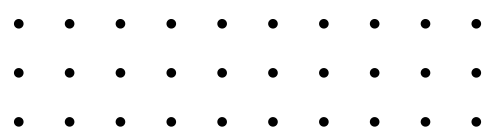

Ram Bagh: Ram Bagh is India's oldest Mughal garden, made by Emperor Babur. It is a calm place with a neat layout. People visit to enjoy its beauty and learn about its history.

Anguri Bagh: Anguri Bagh, within Agra Fort, showcases intricate Mughal landscaping. Its meticulously designed layout and verdant beauty offer visitors a glimpse into the luxury of imperial gardens from that era.

Dayal Bagh: An impressive temple under construction, featuring intricate carvings and a stunning garden. This unique site draws both tourists and devotees, offering a glimpse into ongoing traditional craftsmanship.
